Information for Parents

All lessons are held after school. Please choose a day carefully as it can be difficult to change once class rolls have been issued. Your child will receive notice of their lesson day and time on Wednesday 16 February. Lessons will begin the week commencing Monday 21 February.

Please note that these are preliminary times until tutors get to know the students and what levels they are working at. If we need to move your child into a more suitable class, we will contact you to discuss.

Frequently Asked Questions

- Do I have to pay upfront?
  - Yes. Please return your enrolment form with full payment. If there is difficulty or hardship concerns, please contact the office to make alternative arrangements.
  - No refunds will be given after lessons have commenced. If the course is cancelled due to lack of numbers, only then will a full refund will be given.
- How can I choose my lesson time?
  - If we have to set a class limit, priority will be assigned on a first in first served basis. Priority will go to those who have paid in full.
- Can students wait after school?
  - Students with early lessons must wait outside the Performing Arts Centre under the tree. Students may play on the astroturf or playground provided that they are on time for their lesson. Students may wait in the foyer of the music room only if it is raining. They are not permitted to wait in the lesson area, or in adjacent classrooms. They will also benefit from having something to eat and drink after school, but this cannot be taken into the lesson areas. Students with lessons commencing from 4.15pm should go home at 3:15pm and return for their lesson time. There is no direct supervision of students waiting for lessons.

We hope that your child enjoys their sessions. Please don't get too serious with it all. The Performing Arts should be fun and not a chore The aim at this age is to develop what we hope will become a lifelong passion.
